

In the car park, the children spied a cat with spots on its fur. It was looking for food.