

Sequencing sentences

Remember

Sentences can be joined together to make a piece of writing. This writing could be a story or information about something. The sentences should be in the correct order or sequence so that the writing makes sense.

Practise

1 Tick to show if the sentences are in the correct order.

- a. I planted a seed. I gave the seed some water.
The seed grew into a plant.
- b. I ate the sandwich. I put cheese on the bread.
I spread butter on the bread.
- c. Toby took out his phone. He pressed the buttons to call Lola. He spoke to Lola.
- d. Mum read her book. Mum opened her book.
Mum chose a book from the shelf.

Tip

Some things need to happen before other things. Read the sentences and think about what you would need to do first.

Extend

2 Write 1, 2 or 3 to put the sentences in the correct order.
