

Which word in this sentence is a noun?
He went to jog by the river.

river

1

What type of word is felt in this sentence?
They felt tired after the party.

a verb

2

How many adjectives are there in this sentence?
The small, fluffy rabbit ate a tasty carrot.

three (small, fluffy, tasty)

3

What type of word is happily?
The children played happily in the sunshine.

an adverb

4

What type of sentence is this?
It is too cold to play outside.

a statement

5

What punctuation mark is missing from the end of this sentence?

Are you sure you want to eat that 6

a question mark

What type of sentence is this?

Run away if dragons appear.

7

a command

What punctuation mark should be added to this sentence?

What a wonderful dance

8

an exclamation mark

Is this a sentence or a phrase?

the long, strong tree trunk

9

a phrase

Which words in this sentence form a noun phrase?

She swam in the local swimming pool.

10

the local swimming pool

Which word – or, but or and – is missing from this sentence?

The weather was rainy _____ we went out for a walk anyway.

11

but

Which word – when, if, that or because – belongs in this sentence?

I am very full _____ I had a big lunch.

12

because

Is this sentence in the simple present tense or the simple past tense?

On the beach, there are shells and pebbles to collect.

13

simple present tense

What suffix should be added to slow to complete this sentence?

The hedgehog crossed the road very slow_____.

14

-ly

Which word in this sentence is incorrect?

Yesterday, I went to the shops and buy an apple.

15

buy (it should be 'bought')

Which words in this sentence need capital letters?

lily and javid went on holiday to cornwall.

16

Lily, Javid and Cornwall

How many full stops are missing from this passage?

It's time to go home go and get your coats and bags we'll meet in the car park in ten minutes

17

three

It's time to go home. Go and get your coats and bags. We'll meet in the car park in ten minutes.

Does this sentence need a question mark or an exclamation mark?

How long will we have to wait

18

a question mark

What punctuation mark is used at the end of sentences to express excitement, surprise or another strong emotion?

19

an exclamation mark

Where are commas needed in this sentence?

I will have fish chips peas and carrots for dinner.

20

I will have fish, chips, peas and carrots for dinner.

What letter is replaced by the apostrophe in the word we're?

a (from 'we are')

21

Which part of the word unfair is the prefix?

un-

22

Does the word colourful have a prefix or a suffix?

a suffix (-ful)

23