

Complete this sentence with a noun formed from the verb disappoint.

Book your tickets early to avoid _____.

1

disappointment

How many verbs are there in this sentence?

The baby gurgled happily as it reached out its hand to grab the shiny red balloon.

2

three (gurgled, reached, grab)

Which of these sentences uses the word clean as an adjective?

- He decided to clean his car.
- Cats are very clean animals.
- I need to give the windows a clean.

3

Cats are very clean animals.

Which word in this sentence is a conjunction?

Luke read a book while he waited for his parents.

4

while

Which pronouns could be used to rewrite this sentence?

Ellie washed Ellie's hands after Ellie ate Ellie's sandwich.

5

Ellie washed her hands after she ate her sandwich.

Find the possessive pronoun in this sentence.

The children's work was of a high standard, but Charlie believed hers was the best.

6

hers

Which word in this sentence is a relative pronoun?

I like people who are good at listening.

7

who

Which word in this sentence is an adverb?

Perhaps I will go to the party later.

8

perhaps

Which part of this sentence is an adverbial?

Before I go to work, I will go to the gym.

9

Before I go to work

What is the word class of the underlined word in this sentence?

There was a lot of noise during the performance.

10

preposition

Which determiner – a or an – is needed to complete this sentence?
Nish worked for about _____ hour.

an 11

Which word is the subject of this sentence?
The homework was eaten by the dog.

dog

12

Turn this question into a statement.
Will Alfie buy a new pair of shoes?

Alfie will buy a new pair of shoes.

13

Turn this statement into a question.
We are going to the zoo tomorrow.

Are we going to the zoo tomorrow?

14

What type of sentence is this?
If it starts to rain, go inside immediately.

a command

15

Which of these sentences is an exclamation?

- You are a good friend
- What a good friend you are
- Are you a good friend

16

What a good friend you are

What is the grammatical term for the underlined part of this sentence?

Although I was tired, I made it over the finish line.

17

main clause

Which words in this sentence form a relative clause?

Naveed, who looked very smart indeed, arrived on time.

18

who looked very smart indeed

Which words in this sentence form a noun phrase?

Poppy has had a very long, tiring journey.

19

a very long, tiring journey

Complete this sentence with an appropriate coordinating conjunction.

We can either go to the cinema _____ go bowling.

20 or

Find the subordinating conjunction in this sentence.

Izzy watched her favourite TV show after she had finished doing her homework.

21

after

Which word shows that this sentence is in the past tense?

We rowed the boat around the serene lake.

22

rowed

Which verb form in this sentence is in the present perfect?

I think we have seen this film before.

23

have seen

Find the modal verb in this sentence.

The weatherman said it might rain tomorrow.

24 might Turn this sentence into the present progressive.

The ice cream melts in her hand.

25

The ice cream is melting in her hand.

Which word in this sentence is incorrect?

Lola is late for her swimming lesson, and doesn't want to get into trouble, so walked very quickly.

26

walked (it should be 'walks')

Complete this sentence so that it uses the subjunctive form.

If I _____ the Prime Minister, I would give everyone the day off on their birthday.

27

were

How would you rewrite this sentence in the passive voice?

A goat ate my hat.

28

My hat was eaten by a goat.

Which words in this sentence should begin with a capital letter?

my favourite museum is tate modern in london, which is next to the river thames.

29

My favourite museum is Tate Modern in London, which is next to the River Thames.

Where are full stops and capital letters needed in this sentence?

outside, the sky is clear blue and the sun is strong and bright thick smoke rises from the chimneys, creating the only clouds in the sky

30

Outside, the sky is clear blue and the sun is strong and bright. Thick smoke rises from the chimneys, creating the only clouds in the sky.

What punctuation mark is needed in this sentence?

Were there really ten puppies to choose from 31 a question mark

What punctuation mark is needed in this sentence?

What a snazzy jumper

32 an exclamation mark

Where are commas needed in this sentence?

Tilly baked muffins using self-raising flour caster sugar eggs chocolate chips and milk.

33

Tilly baked muffins using self-raising flour, caster sugar, eggs, chocolate chips and milk.

Where are commas needed in this sentence?

Harry's apple pies baked last night were well received.

34

Harry's apple pies, baked last night, were well received.

Where is a comma needed in this sentence?

Before the clock struck midnight Cinderella rushed home.

35

Before the clock struck midnight, Cinderella rushed home.

How would you rewrite this sentence in direct speech? Remember the correct punctuation.

Dad asked whether they would like pasta, salad or both for dinner.

36

"Would you like pasta, salad or both for dinner?" asked Dad.

How does the position of the apostrophe change the meaning of the second sentence?

I am going to my friend's party on Saturday.

I am going to my friends' party on Saturday.

37

In the first sentence, it is only one friend having a party. In the second sentence, it is two or more friends having a party.

Which three types of punctuation can be used to show parenthesis?

38 brackets, dashes or commas

Where should a colon be added in this sentence?

Last weekend, I planted seeds in my vegetable patch carrots, parsnips and radishes.

39

Last weekend, I planted seeds in my vegetable patch: carrots, parsnips and radishes.

What is the name of the punctuation mark used between the two main clauses in this sentence?

The old, grey cat lay basking in the sun; the kitten, however, danced about like a jack-in-the-box.

40

semi-colon

Where should a dash be added in this sentence?

There were flowers everywhere I had no idea Granny owned so many vases.

41

There were flowers everywhere – I had no idea Granny owned so many vases.

Where are hyphens needed in this sentence?

Sam is the brown eyed child with strawberry blonde hair.

42

Sam is the brown-eyed child with strawberry-blond hair.

Find two synonyms and two antonyms in the passage below.

On Christmas Eve, we stay up late, eagerly anticipating the following day. Then, in the morning, we wake up early and race excitedly to the tree.

43

'eagerly' and 'excitedly' are synonyms
'late' and 'early' are antonyms

Which prefix can be added to these three words to make their antonyms?

polished fair clean

44 un- (unpolished, unfair, unclean)

Which suffix can be added to the word kind to complete this sentence?

He demonstrated great _____ when he helped the old man across the road.

45

-ness (kindness)

What is the root word of multicultural?

culture

46

How would you rewrite this sentence in Standard English?
I done my homework quick last night.

I did my homework quickly last night.

47

Which sentence is the most formal?
Eating too many cakes isn't great for you.
It is important not to eat too many cakes.
Don't eat too much cake – it's bad for you.

It is important not to eat too many cakes.

48

Why has the subjunctive form been used in this sentence?
If I were chosen for the position of Head Teacher of Galesville Primary School, I would do my best.

To make the sentence sound more formal.

49