Jam sandwich!

A lorry carrying jam crashes in the town centre. Write a newspaper article or report based on this incident. The headline is Jam sandwich!

Hints

Before you start:

- think what the article might be about
- consider what your reader will want to know
- work out what happened, where, when and why, and who was involved
- consider whether there are other vital details that should be included
- decide how to organise and set out your article.

As you write:

- think how a reporter would write the article
- choose your words carefully
- try out sentences to see if they sound like those in a real newspaper report.

Check

Continue on a separate sheet if necessary.

- When you have finished, check through your writing.
- Check that everything sounds right.
- Proofread to check spelling and punctuation.
- Make changes to improve it.
