

Ricky the runner

Proofread this character description from a story.

Change anything that does not look or sound correct.

Hints

- Check that everything is clear and sounds right.
- Check that the punctuation has been used correctly and effectively.
- Check that the spelling is correct.

Let me tell you about my bruther Ricky. Hes eight years old has spikey hair like a spider plant and a mischievus smile some people think he is cute but actully hes just anoying.

Normaly you find him lieing on his bed with a sosage sandwich, televishun and computor games are the most important things in his life, and the only way to get his attenshun is to hide the remote.

Now he has invented this grand sceme to be a sporting supperstar. What an idea. I'm going to be in the olimpics he says. I will probably be a gold medalist is he sereous.

Much to our surprize, hes now taken up exersice and keeps flexing his mussles at the nieghbors, if that wasn't bad enough we now find my brothers horrible sports kit everywhere, its begining to get on my nerves, am I being unreasonable.

Extra

On a separate sheet of paper, write a brief description of an imaginary brother or sister who dreams of becoming a television star.